The Carson Mint Mystery—Solving the Problem—Sensational Scandal—Mythical Bullion Yarns—An Unusually Humbug—Locating the Shortage—The Rumored Arson—Detective, Jurors and Witnesses—The New Fish Law and its Effects.

(Correspondence of the Journal.)

CARSON CITY, April 8, 1895.

The Carson mint shortage continues in a chronic state of investigation and the newspapers utilize it to the utmost in the way of reporting sensations, otherwise it would have subsided into tame monotony among the incidentals of Carson life. But every day the hungry journalists and reporters dig up some new idea, theory or sensation in the matter for the hungry public to read, regardless as to whether the same be true or false, yet at the same time they gravely state that "what is going on in the mint is still a sealed book."

"The officials are not giving out the slightest information." "The U. S. District Attorney is working in concert with the inspectors and detectives and preparing indictments." "Important arrests are shortly to be made," etc. The original shortage figure, $84,180, has gradually increased, in the papers, to $100,000 yesterday, yet no official authority is given for the same. In fact they say they have none and cannot obtain any, therefore the inference is that what they publish is merely guess work.

And they go on to tell about one bar melted falling short $20,000, and about a bar of 16,000 ounces from the Voltaire mine which was so base as to be worth only $12, but was substituted for a good bar in the swindle. In point of fact that little bar was sold to the mint twenty years ago by the owners or workers of the Voltaire mine south of Carson. It was composed principally of copper and lead and purchased at its ascertained assay value—less than $20—more to assist the prospectors in finding out what they had than anything else. That Voltaire bar forms part of the bullion history of the mint. It has been transmitted from one administration to another down to the present, and there it still reposes in humble unpretentiousness among the bullion assets of the institution.

That elaborate, illustrated story in the San Francisco Examiner yesterday about the Carson mint trouble is merely a rehash of the old stories already told here, with some few surmises, etc., and nothing definite or official.

A TELEGRAPHIC ABSURDITY.

But the meanest, silliest yarn was that in the Associated Press dispatches yesterday stating that the gold coin issued from the Carson mint contained too much alloy and was not up to the Government standard, and that the San Francisco banks were sorting them out for redemption by the U. S. Treasury Department. Any telegraph reporter should know better than to send such an absurdity over the wires. Hope the Associated Press isn't trying to kill the mint.

Every lot of coin which passes from the coiner to the Treasurer or Superintendent is carefully weighed and must not deviate from the required standard. The pieces are then selected at random from the lot and sent, one to the Director of the Mint or Assay Commission at Washington, one to the Philadelphia mint and the third to the San Francisco mint. There each is assayed, and should they deviate from the standard in fineness or weight the discrepancy would be very promptly announced. But nothing of the sort has ever existed and the reputation of the Carson mint coinage is on a par with the best.

Such derogatory and irresponsible stories being put into circulation most certainly can have no effect, but work to the injury of our mint and our State. Nevada has been meanly designated in the east as the "rotten borough," but it is still meaner for any of her own citizens to blunderingly contribute proof to that effect. Nevada's money product is just as good now, if not as plentiful, as it was during the civil war.

THE SHORTAGE PROBLEM.

It is publicly known that the mint shortage is found in the weighing and receiving, and the melting and refining departments and it can be attributed to gross carelessness, bad figuring, systematic stealage extending perhaps for years back—collusive crookedness in which more than one person is involved. But the chances are that when the whole problem is ciphered out, the shortage will be much less than has been estimated or guessed at. The official report is eagerly looked for.

Meanwhile Inspector Mason and his corps of detectives, the U. S. District Attorney and U. S. Marshal are in active communication and meet every evening, or when ever necessary. The air is full of rumors and surmises. Noble Jefferson, formerly in the coinage department is back here from Truckee where he has been for several months past. Noble don't say much but looks wise and attracts attention. W. H. Doane, chief coiner years ago, is also here, and Charley Colburn, late coiner, has been interviewed at Virginia City. Everybody has his ears open, willing to hear something startling at any time.

INCIDENTALS.

During the past week Carson has also been enlivened by a host of jurors, witnesses, etc., attending upon the U. S. Circuit Court, including quite a delegation from Reno, Truckee and the Comstock. This in connection with the big new theatrical pictures posted up give the Indians an idea that a big circus will be here next week.

As to-morrow will be Sunday, some parties would like to go up the river or somewhere fishing, but they don't understand the new fish law so will stay at home and discuss it or go to church, or to the race track. Tim Dempsey's fish pond was well stocked with gold and silver fish, real beauties, but since the adjournment of the Legislature they have all died. Tim doesn't understand what the new fish law had to do with it, but will fill his pond with catfish next.

ALLEN OF BURRKA

He Corrects Some Misstatements Made Regarding Himself.

EUREKA April 5, 1895.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—Permit me to correct certain misstatements in relation to myself, in the Carson Appeal of a recent date. The Appeal charged that Mr. C. E. Allen declared on the floor of the Assembly that the Republican party would win in the next election in Nevada; that he was not, and never had been a member of the Silver party. Now, Mr. Editor, the above charges were "manufactured out of whole cloth." I never made any such declaration on the floor of the Assembly nor elsewhere. My veracity against that of Mr. Davis, in this matter. We are both well known in the State. I do not believe that the Republican party will win at the next election in this State, and never did believe it. While I believe there are many hundreds of honest, conscientious Republicans in this State, who vote and act politically, as they believe for the best interests of the State, I regard their political action as ill advised. I am firmly convinced that the National Republican party is hopelessly committed against the remonetization of silver and many other needed reforms, and that to maintain a Republican organization in this State and to vote the Republican ticket is simply to give "aid and comfort" to a party that is the determined foe of reforms of vital importance to the State and nation.

Now, Mr. Editor, I was elected to the Assembly as a Silver man. In the Assembly on every occasion I advocated the principles enunciated in the platform of the Silver party of this State and every vote of mine was given in favor of those principles and I challenge the Appeal or any other of my detractors to point to a single instance where I proved false on my pledge.

CHARLES E. ALLEN.

MINT NEWS.

No Change Made in Melting and Refining Departments Yesterday.

The Carson correspondent of the JOURNAL sent the following last evening:

Regarding the rumor on the street that John T. Jones and Ernest Harris had been relieved from duty in the Melting and Refining Department of the Mint, your correspondent can positively say that such is not the fact. Johnny Jones was not let out at noon to-day. At 6 o'clock this evening I interviewed Mr. Harris on the street and asked him the direct question, "Are you let out?" and he answered: "No; I am not." "All right, Mr. Harris. I thank you and won't ask anything further."

The Mint officials maintain a studied silence and give no information as to what they are doing. This is reliable, reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

SADLER ACQUITTED.

He Commences an Action for $20,000 Damages.

The examination of Lieutenant-Governor Sadler last week on the charge of embezzlement instituted against him by J. D. Doyle, a creditor of Mr. Sadler's, resulted in Mr. Sadler's acquittal. There has been bad blood between the parties for a long time over business affairs. Mr. Sadler has commenced suit against Doyle for malicious prosecution, laying his damages at $20,000. The prosecution was not in the remotest degree the result of Mr. Sadler's political action.—Sentinel.

The Bicycle Race.

Yesterday afternoon quite a little excitement was stirred up over a bicycle race that was gotten up between C. O. Hopkins, the agent of the Rambler bicycle, and Al. Helms and Charlie Leke on the Victor tandem. The road near Steele's ranch was chosen as the course and a quarter of a mile measured off. After two or three attempts at a start the cyclists got away and both wheels went to win. Leke and Helms on the tandem won the race in 32½ seconds, Hopkins being a close second. A large crowd went down the road to view the race and considerable money changed hands.

In view of this, it is earnestly requested that all parties owing the old firm will settle their accounts as speedily as possible, so that the affairs of the former concern can be closed up.

Mr. Sol Levy will conduct the new store on strictly Eastern principles, including prices. Spot cash will be the rule, thus giving patrons the best advantages of purchase and a choice line of goods in every department.

The date of opening will be announced in due time, and it will be an eventful one in the history of the dry and fancy goods business of Reno.

PERILS OF A MESMERIC EYE.

They Drove a Respectable, Clean Shaved Lawyer Into Whiskers.
A well known lawyer who has always taken considerable pride in the classic mold of his clean shaven face appeared in the county court rooms recently with a well developed growth of very unbecoming beard. Every friend that he met wanted to know why he didn't get shaved, and finally he corralled half a dozen of them in a corner and told them the reason.

He had never learned the art of shaving himself and had always patronized one barber. Not long ago the barber dropped into the habit of telling him that he (the lawyer) had a mesmeric eye. The lawyer didn't mind much what his barber thought of his eye so long as he shaved him satisfactorily. But having discovered that the lawyer's eye was mesmeric the barber went a step further and once in awhile, after making a slip with the razor, would explain that it was because he was mesmerized, so that he did not know what he was about. Matters went on this way for a week or so, the barber insisting that he was mesmerized every time the lawyer looked squarely at him, and the lawyer took it for granted that the mesmeric business was a dodge to excuse the occasional cuts from the razor.

A different aspect was put to the case, however, the last time the barber shaved his lawyer customer. Learning over him after he had finished, he asked if the lawyer thought a man would be excusable for cutting the throat of one who mesmerized him. The lawyer said he certainly would not be excusable and got out of the chair as quickly as possible. He learned afterward that the barber had developed into a perfect crank on the subject of mesmerism, and nothing will persuade him that he did not have a very narrow escape. He will probably go to another barber some time, but at present his nerves are so shaken by the occurrence that he prefers to wear an unbecoming beard to sitting down in any barber chair.—Chicago Tribune.

THE EARTH IS RUNNING SLOW.

But the Scientists Need Not Alarm One Seriously Yet.
Lord Kelvin estimates that the "running slow" of the earth in its daily rotation round its axis amounts to 22 seconds per century.
The main cause of this retardation is the friction caused by the tides, which act as a brake, the action of which has been calculated by this eminent physicist to be equal to a weight of 4,000,000 tons applied on the equator.
Other causes have also to be taken into account—as, for example, the increase in the size of the earth, due to the falling on it of meteoric dust, which, if deposited at the rate of one foot in 4,000 years, would produce the observed retardation by itself.

Such a phenomenon as the annual growth and melting of snow and ice at the poles is introducing irregularities into the problem, the growth at the poles, by abstracting water from the other parts of the ocean, accelerating the earth's motion, and the melting, by restoring the water, retarding it.
Against the retarding forces there has to be taken into account a probable acceleration, due to the gradual sinking of the earth by cooling, but this Lord Kelvin believes to be very small—perhaps not more than one six-thousandth part of the retardation due to tidal friction.

Professor Newcomb has declared from astronomical considerations that the earth went slow and lost seven seconds between 1850 and 1862, and then went fast and gained eight seconds between 1862 and 1872, changes of rate explainable by possible changes in the earth's shape, so slight as to be quite undetectable in astronomical observations.—Chicago Times.

English Accents.

The great French actor Polvere has an ambition or a dream that some day the stage of every country will speak the language of his country with a perfect accent and an academic unity. "It is that very thing, the variety of accents, that makes English so puzzling to a foreigner. Go into any of the first class comedy theaters in London. An actor enters. He speaks one English. Another walks on the stage. He speaks a second species. A third and a fourth have a third and a fourth variety. It is just as though, at the Comedie Francaise, one role were to be played by a Marseillais, another by a Bordelais, a third by a Breton, each with his individual accent. A stranger would find it difficult to pose himself, to take his bearings. On one of my visits to London I was talking with the Prince of Wales. 'By the way, Febvre,' said he suddenly, 'how do you get along with English?' 'Ah, monseigneur,' I replied, 'the English I learned in Paris does not pass beyond the fortifications and is only spoken between Frenchmen!'—Philadelphia Ledger.

Mrs. Gamp—They toss some sand out, to be sure.
Mrs. Harris—And what do they do when they want to come down?
Mrs. Gamp—They put some more in, of course.—Pick Me Up.
